

Harvard University Club of Ottawa
Final Event Commemorating HBS Centennial
Harvard Business School Club, Canada's Capital Region

The Role of France in the World Today
Strategic, Geopolitical and Economic Perspectives

His excellence François Delattre, Ambassador of France to Canada
Embassy of France, 42, Sussex Drive, Ottawa, ON, Canada
Friday, June 12, 2009, 5:30 p.m. Please arrive early.

François Delattre was appointed Ambassador of France to Canada in June 2008, following four years as French Consul General in New York (2004-2008), two years as Deputy Director of the French Foreign Minister's Office (2002-2004) and four years as Press and Communications Director at the French Embassy in Washington, D.C. (1998-2002).

As a member of President Jacques Chirac's Foreign Policy Team (1995-1998), François Delattre was responsible for European and Trans-Atlantic defence and security issues and managing the Bosnian crisis.

He had previously advised Foreign Minister Alain Juppé in his cabinet on these same issues (1993-1995) following two years with the Strategic, Security and Disarmament Department of the French Foreign Ministry (1991-1993).

François Delattre was posted in Bonn at the French Embassy in Germany, where he was in charge of environmental issues and the economic consequences of Germany's unification.

Agenda

- 5:30 p.m. Cocktail reception
- 6:10 p.m. Lecture
- 7:15 p.m. Social Networking
- 7:35 p.m. Meeting ends

Important

- Please allow 15 minutes to park and walk to the building. For admittance, you must provide your Harvard-Club confirmation and a passport, a driver's license or a government ID. Only individuals who register online before May 29th will be admitted.
- Opening our events to the community is an important priority for Harvard University Club of Ottawa. Everyone is welcome to participate in this event.

Space is limited. Register and securely pay online now at www.harvardottawa.org. Fees (payable in advance by credit card): $15 per adult person, high-school students: $6. Add GST. As we have accomplished in each of the five HBS Centennial events thanks to your generosity, the net proceeds will be donated to the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario (CHEO).